Field Museum   Soldier Field   McCormick Place   Hyde Park   Museum of Science & Industry

LOOKING SOUTH

Look south and enjoy views of some of Chicago's favorite attractions – from historic Soldier Field to the Field Museum and the Museum of Science and Industry. On a clear day, you may even spy the smokestacks around the bend of Lake Michigan that mark the industrial city of Gary in neighboring Indiana.

AON Center   Navy Pier   Millennium Park   Grant Park   Buckingham Fountain   Adler Planetarium   Shedd Aquarium   Northerly Island

LOOKING EAST

Peer east and feast your eyes on the stunning views of one of the world's largest freshwater lakes, Lake Michigan. The land along the lake is home to beautiful parks and cultural attractions including Millennium Park, Shedd Aquarium, Grant Park, Northerly Island, and Adler Planetarium. Due east, across the water, you just might see the shore of Michigan.

Wrigley Field   Lincoln Park Zoo   Merchandise Mart   Former John Hancock Center   Water Tower Place

LOOKING NORTH

To the north, you'll see many of the other notable skyscrapers that help make up Chicago's iconic skyline. You'll also see the Chicago River, Lincoln Park Zoo, and world-famous Wrigley Field. Look to the horizon and you'll start to see how the city's growth has bridged the border to blend with the cities of southern Wisconsin.
